COMMENTS

I practiced full-spectrum family medicine in rural East Texas after residency. In 2002 I moved back to Michigan to join the core Family Medicine Faculty at the MidMichigan Family Medicine Residency in Midland, Michigan. I have continued to provide full-spectrum care while teaching our future work force. Along the way, I have started participating and leading medical mission trips to Honduras with the Carolina Honduras Health Foundation. Our newest endeavor is learning point of care ultrasound to use at the teaching bedside.

HOBBIES

Dr. Eley enjoys her involvement in community service activities where she is dedicated to volunteering to serve others in her local community. She is a very active member of her church, City Temple SDA Church in Dallas and a committed member of the Far North Dallas chapter of Jack and Jill of America, Inc. Dr. Eley enjoys traveling with her family to locations with warm climate, beautiful beaches and spectacular ocean views. She loves to read, shop and is learning to focus on consistent self-care.

COMMENTS

Dr. Eley is board certified with the American Board of Pediatrics and is a fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics. She is a well rounded pediatrician who brings an extensive knowledge of children's medicine to her practice. She genuinely enjoys her patient population ranging from birth to eighteen years of age, but her special clinical interests include newborn and infancy care and that of adolescent medicine. She strives for her practice to exemplify that medicine and compassion meet when it comes to the care of her patients and their families.

■ COMMENTS

After graduating from Wayne State University I completed residency and fellowship training in Neurology and Neuromuscular Medicine at Columbia University in New York City. I moved to Greensboro, NC to join a private practice specializing in the treatment of headache disorders. I am presently the owner and director of Headache Wellness Center a regional headache specialty center. I am actively involved in clinical research as a principal investigator and frequently travel in the United States to lecture as a headache expert. The practice of medicine has been extremely rewarding and satisfying.

I enjoy the many wonderful restaurants and historical sites in the Charleston SC area with my husband and 3 daughters. I also volunteer with the Low Country Food Bank. Prior to joining MUSC in 2014, I worked at a Federally Funded Community Health Center for 9 years in the Charleston area providing care to the uninsured and underserved.

COMMENTS

My oldest daughter Emily was born during my 2nd year at WSU med school. She is now a 4th year veterinary student at UGA and planning to go on for a residency in cardiology. My second daughter Megan was born during residency at William Beaumont Hospital and she will complete her masters degree in SW at The University of SC this spring. My youngest daughter Jenna is a junior at The University of SC and planning to go on to be a PA in dermatology.

COMMENTS

After training in medicine at Indiana and cardiovascular at Rush Presbyterian-St. Luke's in Chicago, I took a job working at the old Cook County where I stayed for a dozen years (at the new Cook County/Stroger Hospital for most of that). I then worked for the VA in various hot spots around the country where they had broken cardiovascular programs that needed attention. I decided then to try a sort-of private practice, but stayed less than two years with the Sinai Group in Chicago -- urban hellhole hospitals that felt like home to me. So now I'm back workin' for the gov-mint, at the combo VA and USN facility on the grounds of the enormous Great Lakes Naval Station in North Chicago, IL. This job is great fun, and definitely not what regular cardiologists in this part of the world would like. But I have never been normal.

COMMENTS

Dr. Warfield was born in Detroit, Michigan and is the oldest of two children. She is proud to say that she is the first physician in her family.

Dr. Sharita is very passionate about educating the community on diabetes and the negative complications that are associated with improper treatment, she is the Founder of DrSharitaMD.com where she discusses diabetic related issues in a way people can understand.

She strives to impact as many people as she can with her message. She also gives healthy recipes and food tips to assist in making healthy lifestyle changes. Her program is in very high demand after she has led many of her Diabetic Warriors as she calls them to success.

Dr. Sharita is also the founder of the Warfield Medical Group, PLLC. Through WMG she offers customized and compassionate weight management solutions to people who are overweight or obese and are looking to achieve their weight goals with dignity and respect. For more info visit her website www.drsharitamd.com and Follow her on all social media sites @DrSharitaMD
